Dear Tony:

25X1A6a I have been back a week but have been so swamped with work that I have not had an opportunity to write to you. I want to thank you for your very kind hospitality to me while I was in [redacted] and let you know how much I appreciate your showing me around that town.

25X1A6a The trip back to [redacted] 25X1A6a was completely uneventful, but as soon as I arrived, I discovered that the negotiations, which I thought had been completed, had fallen through during my stay at [redacted] so we had to start from scratch again. 25X1A6a Fortunately everything turned out for the best, but it took 25X1A6a an additional month in [redacted] to pull the trick.

25X1A6a I never did get to [redacted] 25X1A6a because affairs were in such a tough and go state in [redacted] that I did not want to be absent from the scene of activities.

How are things going with you? [redacted] should be there by now, and I trust you will find him a valuable addition on the editorial side. I still have your camera, but will send it off to your brother-in-law as soon as I finish up a roll that is still in it.

Give my best to everyone, especially those wonderful people who got me aboard the plane.

Sincerely,

25X1A9a
